FLOOR DEBATE

May 1, 2001

should have been discussed before. Did you all see where that crack-brained man from Nebraska went to Philadelphia with a hammer and attacked a cracked bell? A man named Connealy and a man named Brown ran into each other and both fell down. Connealy said to Brown, my head rings so. Brown said to Connealy, that means it's hollow, you know. Mine doesn't ring...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and that's a fact. Connealy says to Brown, that means it's cracked. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, Mr. President, members of the Legislature, we're just having so much fun here this morning, at least in the culture corner. I'm going to wear you all out with this, as you wear me out with these bad policies and these bad programs. Take them out of the statute and you don't have to listen to me. But as long as they are in the statute, every time I open the statute, I've got to see it. I've got to be aware of it. So while the opportunity is available, I've got to claw and claw and claw at these things and hope that I can make some progress in getting rid of them. This amendment would take away from the PEA program the increase that is proposed by the budget committee, the Appropriations Committee. That increased amount is $750,000 for two years running to be stacked on top of two million, three hundred and forty something thousand dollars for two years running. I would like to see all of that done away with, but if I can't get the lesser thing done, you know I cannot get the greater thing done, but that's not going to stop me from trying. Frank Sinatra sang a song, "Oops, There Goes Another Rubber Tree Plant". You just have to keep on keeping on, and if you don't win on this one, it establishes how you will fight for what you believe and will not be deterred by anything. So this is one of those things with which I disagree, and I have to continue fighting it. But I assure my colleagues, I'm not trying to hold up the appropriations bill forever, or for twelve hours, or for eight hours, or for any specific period
